Dr. Renee Foutz , MD is an Assistant Professor of Medicine and Emergency Medicine at the Medical College of Wisconsin. She specializes in hospice and palliative medicine and emergency medicine.

Dr. Aasim I. Padela, MD, MSc, FACEP is Professor with Tenure of Emergency Medicine, Bioethics and the Medical Humanities at MCW. He is also director of the Initiative on Islam and Medicine. His scholarship aims at improving health and healthcare equity by better accommodating religious values in healthcare delivery.

On death & dying

Terminal illness, dying & living wills are difficult topics to talk about, despite the reality of death.

Do you know..

American Muslims in general have little knowledge and awareness about palliative & hospice care, and advance care planning.

Dr. Ismail Quryshi, MD, FACP, HMDC, a physician specialist with the Froedtert & MCW health network. He specializes in hospice and palliative medicine and geriatric medicine.

Dr. Zulfiqar Ali Shah is the Director Religious Affairs of the Islamic Society of Milwaukee and Executive Director/Secretary General of the Fiqh Council of North America.

What about Islam

There are misperceptions and perceived tensions between aspects of end-of-life care with Islamic teachings.

"Good death"

Ever thought of engaging with end-of-life care as a patient - or caregiver for a loved one - to face the final moment in peace & without regret?
