

AKU-IED in collaboration with the Initiative on Islam & Medicine presents an academic symposium

Biomedicine, Religion, and Education

This invite-only interdisciplinary symposium brings together leading voices from the fields of:

- Biomedical Sciences
- Islamic Scholarship & Philosophy
- Education & Pedagogy

Together, the experts will explore the ethical, theological, and curricular intersections shaping the future of science and medicine in Muslim contexts.

For updates and post-event highlights, stay connected.

This project is generously funded by the John Templeton Foundation

Date: Thursday, 17th July 2025

Venue: Aga Khan University – Institute for Educational Development (AKU-IED), Karachi

Time: Full-day event